

Filip Ask von Ubisch

Higher Executive Officer, Norwegian Ministry of Education and Research

Filip Ask von Ubisch is a graduate in political science from the University of Amsterdam. He joined the Norwegian Ministry of Education and Research following his studies. Since then he has been responsible for education issues related to UNESCO. This includes a special focus on issues within the field of higher education. In particular, he played a key role in the process towards Norway's ratification of the Global Convention. Beside multilateral efforts, he has also taken part in bilateral cooperation between Norway and strategic partners on matters of education, research and innovation.
