

CALL FOR PARTICIPATION 2021

Professors abroad, English and Spanish

Course-Workshop

"Virtual International Collaborations" from September 27th to December 10th.

Universidad Veracruzana, as part of its internationalization at home program, invites faculty abroad to register for the Course-Workshop "Virtual International Collaborations" (VIC). It will be taught online on the EMINUS 4 platform (our institutional educational platform) from September 27th to December 10th, 2021. The course will be 30 hours long (27 hrs. asynchronously and 3 hrs. synchronously) The aim of the course is to guide participants in the development of an educational intervention with an international partner. Participants who successfully complete the course will receive a certificate of completion.

For this intervention partners will design a syllabus for a course. This syllabus will include international and intercultural student learning outcomes, tasks, e-Tools, an evaluation and a calendar. The syllabus is expected to be taught between February and July 2022.
